Collaborating with HistoryMiami Museum as a corporate partner is more than just a simple act of philanthropy – it's making a strategic investment in greater Miami for all who live, learn, work and play here.

HM operates one of the largest private, regional history institutions in the Southeastern United States. A Smithsonian Affiliate and accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, HM has worked for 84 years to preserve and present over 10,000 years of South Florida history.

HM connects people by telling the stories of our communities, individuals, places and events. Every exhibition, artistic endeavor, city tour, educational program, research effort and publication we present is another step closer to everyone understanding the critical value of the past in shaping our collective future.

From discounts to exclusive museum access, our corporate members enjoy an array of benefits designed to engage your staff, cultivate clients, build brand awareness and connect you to our community.
